Section 2 – Notice to Worker

In order to be considered for unemployment insurance benefits, you must file an unemployment claim. No benefits can be paid to you for any week before you actually file your unemployment insurance claim. Failure to file your claim or delaying the filing could affect your eligibility for benefits. You should always file your claim as soon as possible after becoming unemployed. You will not be considered eligible until your claim is filed.

When you file the claim, be sure to have available your Social Security number and the complete name, address, and telephone number for each employer that you worked for in the past 18 months.

You may apply for unemployment benefits on the Internet, 24 hours a day, seven (7) day a week at (www.njuifile.net) or you may telephone a Reemployment Call Center. The Reemployment Call Centers are open during regular business hours, Monday through Friday, excluding holidays.

Union City Call Center (201) 601-4100

Freehold Call Center (732) 761-2020

Cumberland Call Center (856) 507-2340

Out-of-State Claims (888) 795-6672

TTY users can contact the department through New Jersey Relay: 7-1-1

Workers Who Are Unemployed Due to a Vacation Shutdown: You should apply for unemployment benefits if you are receiving vacation pay in an amount less than your full-time wages, you have not refused any offer of suitable work for the vacation period and you are ready and willing to work during the vacation period.

(Please make certain to have this form available when you file your unemployment insurance claim).
